1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Film Disclosure Act 5 of 1993”.

6 SEC. 2. AMENDMENT TO THE LANHAM ACT.

7 Section 43 of the Act entitled “An Act to provide for 8 the registration and protection of trade-marks used in 9 commerce, to carry out the provisions of certain inter-
10 national conventions, and for other purposes”, approved

1 July 5, 1946, commonly known as the Lanham Act (15
2 U.S.C. 1125), is amended by adding at the end the 3 following:

4 “(c)(1)(A) Any distributor or network that proposes 5 to exploit a materially altered motion picture shall—

6 “(i) make a good faith effort to notify each ar-7 tistic author of the motion picture in writing and by 8 registered mail and in a reasonable amount of time
9 prior to such exploitation;

10 “(ii) determine the objections of any artistic au-
11 thor so notified to any material alteration of the mo-
12 tion picture;

13 “(iii) determine the objection of any artistic au-14 thor so notified by the questionnaire set forth in 15 paragraph (9) to any type of future material alter-
16 ations which are in addition to those specifically pro-
17 posed for the motion picture to be exploited;

18 “(iv) if any objections under clause (ii) or (iii)
19 are determined, include the applicable label under 20 paragraph (6) or (8) in, or affix such label to, all 21 copies of the motion picture before—

22 “(I) the public performance of the materi-
23 ally altered motion picture if it is already in dis-24 tribution, or

1 “(II) the initial distribution of the materi-
2 ally altered motion picture to any exhibitor or 3 retail provider; and

4 “(v) in the event of objections by an artistic au-
5 thor to any future material alterations, include or 6 affix such objections to any copy of the motion pic-7 ture distributed or transmitted to any exhibitor or 8 retail provider.

9 “(B) Whenever a distributor or network exploits a 10 motion picture which has already been materially altered,
11 such distributor or network shall not be required to satisfy
12 the requirements of subparagraph (A) (i), (ii), and (iii), 13 if—

14 “(i) such distributor or network does not fur-15 ther materially alter such motion picture; and 16 “(ii) such motion picture was materially altered 17 by another distributor or network that complied fully 18 with all of the requirements of subparagraph (A).

19 “(C)(i) The requirement of a good faith effort under 20 subparagraph (A)(i) is satisfied if a distributor or network
21 that has not previously been notified by each artistic au-
22 thor of a motion picture—

23 “(I) requests in writing the name and address 24 of each artistic author of the motion picture from 25 the appropriate professional guild, indicating a re-

1 sponse date of not earlier than 30 days after the 2 date of the request, by which the appropriate profes-
3 sional guild must respond; and

4 “(II) upon receipt of such information from the 5 appropriate professional guild within the time speci-6 fied in the request, notifies each artistic author of 7 the motion picture in a reasonable amount of time 8 before the exploitation of the motion picture by such 9 network or distributor.

10 “(ii) The notice to each artistic author under this 11 paragraph shall contain a specific date, not earlier than 12 30 days after the date of such notice, by which the individ-
13 ual so notified shall respond in accordance with subpara-
14 graph (A)(ii). Failure of the artistic author or the appro-
15 priate professional guild to respond within the time period
16 specified in the notice shall relieve the distributor or net-
17 work of all liability under subparagraph (A).

18 “(D) The requirements of this paragraph for an ex-19 hibitor shall be limited to—

20 “(i) broadcasting, cablecasting, exhibiting, or 21 distributing all labels required under this section in 22 their entirety that are included with or distributed 23 by the network or distributor of the motion picture; 24 and

1 “(ii) including or affixing a label described in 2 paragraphs (6) and (8) on a materially altered mo-
3 tion picture for any material alterations performed
4 by the exhibitor to which any artistic author has ob-
5 jected under subparagraph (A)(iii).

6 “(E)(i) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply
7 with respect to motion pictures intended for home use
8 through either retail purchase or rental, except that no 9 requirement imposed under this paragraph shall apply to 10 a motion picture which has been packaged for distribution
11 to retail providers before the effective date of this sub-12 section.

13 “(ii) The obligations under this paragraph of a retail 14 provider of motion pictures intended for home use shall 15 be limited to including or distributing all labels required 16 under this paragraph in their entirety that are affixed or 17 included by a distributor or network.

18 “(F) There shall be no consideration in excess of one 19 dollar given in exchange for an artistic author’s waiver of 20 any objection or waiver of the right to object under this 21 subsection.

22 “(2)(A) Any artistic author of a motion picture that 23 is exploited within the United States who believes he or 24 she is or is likely to be damaged by a violation of this 25 subsection may bring a civil action for appropriate relief,

1 as provided in this paragraph, on account of such viola-
2 tion, without regard to the nationality or domicile of the 3 artistic author.

4 “(B)(i) In any action under subparagraph (A), the 5 court shall have power to grant injunctions, according to 6 the principles of equity and upon such terms as the court
7 deems reasonable, to prevent the violation of this sub-
8 section. Any such injunction may include a provision di-9 recting the defendant to file with the court and serve on 10 the plaintiff, within 30 days after the service on the de-11 fendant of such injunction, or such extended period as the 12 court may direct, a report in writing under oath setting 13 forth in detail the manner and form in which the defend-14 ant has complied with the injunction. Any such injunction 15 granted upon hearing, after notice to the defendant, by 16 any district court of the United States—

17 “(I) may be served on the parties against whom 18 such injunction is granted anywhere in the United 19 States where they may be found; and 20 “(II) shall be operative and may be enforced by 21 proceedings to punish for contempt, or otherwise, by 22 the court by which such injunction was granted, or 23 by any other United States district court in whose 24 jurisdiction the defendant may be found.

1 “(ii) When a violation of any right of an artistic au-
2 thor is established in any civil action arising under this 3 subsection, the plaintiff shall be entitled to the remedies
4 provided under section 35(a).

5 “(iii) In any action under subparagraph (A), the 6 court may order that all film packaging of a materially 7 altered motion picture (including film packages of motion
8 pictures intended for home use through either retail pur-9 chase or rental) that is the subject of the violation shall 10 be delivered up and destroyed.

11 “(C) No action shall be maintained under this para-
12 graph unless it is commenced within 1 year after the right
13 of action accrues.

14 “(3) Any disclosure requirements imposed under the 15 common law or statutes of any State respecting the mate-
16 rial alteration of motion pictures are preempted by this 17 subsection.

18 “(4) To facilitate the location of a potentially ag-19 grieved party, each artistic author of a motion picture may 20 notify the copyright owner of the motion picture or any 21 appropriate professional guild. The professional guilds
22 may each maintain a Professional Guild Registry includ-
23 ing the names and addresses of artistic authors so notify-24 ing them and may make available information contained 25 in a Professional Guild Registry in order to facilitate the

1 location of any artistic author for purposes of paragraph
2 (1)(A). No cause of action shall accrue against any profes-
